

Shattered Anzacs

Contents

Acknowledgments

Abbreviations

Notes on sources

Introduction: Family stories

- 1 War wounds as family wounds
- 2 Returning to family life
- 3 Making ends meet
- 4 Family relationships
- 5 Families and mental hospitals
- 6 Tuberculosis: The 'family disease'
- 7 Burnt out soldiers and the 1930s Depression
- 8 Postwar death, grief and memorialisation

Conclusion: The shared legacies of war disability

Appendix 1: Recruitment methods for oral history informants

Appendix 2: Profiles of oral history informants

Notes

Bibliography

Index