LEAD RELEASE

MUGABE AND THE WHITE AFRICAN

BEN FREETH

"With no regard to his own safety, Ben Freeth has, over 10 years fought to bring justice to the people of Zimbabwe. He has been barricaded into homesteads, stoned, attacked with axes, surrounded by mobs of hundreds, shot at, abducted and tortured. Throughout he has been opposed by the Zimbabwean Police and Army. If Ben was a military man, he would have received the highest awards for his courage, fortitude and leadership." — GENERAL LORD DANNATT GCB CBE MC DL

Ben Freeth has an extraordinary story to tell. Like that of many white farmers, his family's land was 'reclaimed' by Mugabe's government for redistribution. But Ben's family fought back. Appealing to international law, they instigated a suit against Mugabe's government via the SADC (The Southern African Development Community). The case was deferred time and again while Mugabe's men pulled strings. But after Freeth and his parents-in-law were abducted and beaten within inches of death in 2008, the SADC deemed any further delay to be an obstruction of justice. The case was heard, and successful on all counts. But the story doesn't end there. In 2009 the family farm was burnt to the ground.

The fight for justice in Zimbabwe is far from over — this book is for anyone who wants to see into the heart of one of today's hardest places, and how human dignity flourishes even in the most adverse circumstances.

"Freeth lays bare a beautiful but lawless land fouled by fear. A 'Clockwork Orange' state where racism, greed and violence are ultimately humbled by almost unimaginable courage. Richly described, bravely chronicled and utterly compelling." — MIKE THOMSON, BBC FOREIGN AFFAIRS CORRESPONDENT

GUNNING FOR GOD: WHY THE NEW ATHEISTS ARE MISSING THE TARGET

JOHN LENNOX

Tackling Hawking, Dawkins, Dennett, Hitchens, and a newcomer in the field—French philosopher Michel Onfray—Lennox points out some of the fallacies in the New Atheist approach, arguing that their irrational and unscientific methodology leaves them guilty of the very obstinate foolishness they criticise in dogmatic religious folks.

LANDSCAPES OF PRAYER: FINDING GOD IN THE WORLD AND YOUR LIFE

MARGARET SILF

Prayer is often perceived as a difficult, 'place-less' exercise in which we close our eyes and seek God beyond our everyday experience in an invisible, ethereal realm. In this beautifully illustrated, contemporary book, Margaret Silf explores seven landscapes of prayer, both classic and modern.

MARTIN LUTHER KING

RICHARD REDDIE

Who was the real Martin Luther King? Richard Reddie provides a lively, highly informative, thought-provoking reappraisal of this famous man, showing how King was not a 'moderate' but a radical individual whose ideas on peace, war, poverty, social justice and equality were well ahead of his time.

NEW SHOES: STEPPING OUT OF THE SHADOW OF SEXUAL ABUSE AND LIVING YOUR DREAMS

REBECCA MITCHELL

This book is an empowering guide to recovering from the damage of childhood sexual abuse and living with confidence. It is a zesty self-help book without therapy jargon, but also without simplistic answers to a very complex and deep wound. It will help readers find the strength to come to terms with what happened to them in the past, to break negative behaviour patterns in the present and to make their dreams a reality.

RELATIONAL MANAGER: TRANSFORM YOUR BUSINESS AND YOUR LIFE

MICHAEL SCHLUTER, DAVID JOHN LEE

This inspiring new approach is based on extensive research by an expert on relationships and supported by a wealth of statistics and case studies.

Relationships are at the heart of all that we do and achieve, indeed our very identity. When relationships are neglected in a business context, the authors argue, they lead to poor health, ineffective management and low output at work. The authors focus on 5 key components of successful relationships and how these can be achieved:

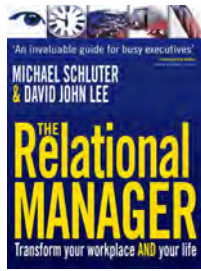

Encounter (personal rather than impersonal contact is best); Storyline (strength of the relationship over time); Knowledge (how deeply is information shared?); Fairness (equal treatment and mutual respect); and Alignment (sharing values, objectives and purpose).

THE PHILOSOPHER AND THE GOSPELS

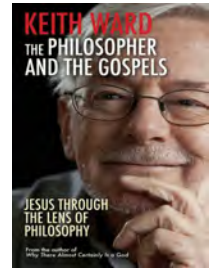

KEITH WARD

The teachings of Jesus Christ, as presented in the Bible, are familiar to millions around the world. But do we really understand what he said and did? Keith Ward argues that the Gospels as passed down to us by centuries of Church teaching can seem an over-literal and spiritually superficial interpretation - good stories with nice morals attached, or clear instructions that need little thought to understand and put into practice.

The treasured stories of the Bible make one great story about God and God's people. In this retelling, each memorable episode can be enjoyed in its own right or read and understood as part of the unfolding story. Christina Balit's stunning illustrations underline the power and drama of the narrative. From the beauty of creation and the tragedy of humankind turning its back on Paradise, to the stories of Jesus, that show people how to walk the good road: the road of love, peace, justice, and eternal life.

MRS. NOAH'S VEGETABLE ARK
STEVE LAVIS

While Mr Noah is busy building his ark, Mrs Noah has a sudden thought: what about her vegetable garden? And the fruit trees? And everything she has spent years sowing, growing and tending? They'll get washed away when the rain comes! So whilst the animal ark venture goes ahead, Mrs Noah begins collecting seeds, taking cuttings and eventually loading the ark with her own produce. The result is a splendid garden ark which not only gives everyone onboard plenty to eat, but once the rain has subsided gives Mrs Noah a head start in helping the world grow green and new. A twist on the well-known story with a topical environmental theme.

ZOO GIRLREBECCA ELLIOTT

- Nominated for the 2012 Kate Greenaway Award!

Zoo Girl has no family. In the children's home, she feels lost and alone. On a trip to the zoo, she is accidentally left behind. But she soon receives a warm welcome from the animals - and when the keepers find her snuggled in a cage they know they have found a daughter at last. This striking picture book blends the appeal of animals and adventure with a heart-warming message that celebrates friends and family. The minimal text - just one or two words per page - allows readers room to absorb the striking illustrations and delve into Zoo Girl's story, using their imagination to reveal a new interpretation of the tale each time it is read. The result is a memorable picture book with a lasting impact that works off the page as well as on.

'My big sister Clemmie is my best friend. She can't walk, talk, move around much, cook macaroni, pilot a plane, juggle or do algebra. I don't know why she doesn't do these things. Just because.'

This heartwarming picture book tells of a brother's love for his sister. He is so enthusiastic about just how loving and special she is, and delights in telling us about all the fun things they do together. Only as his tale unfolds does the reader begin to realize that his sister has special needs...and by then we just accept as he does all the wonderful things about her. This amusing and often touching story encompasses the issue of disability in a charming celebration of sibling friendship to which all children can relate.
