EAT, DRINK AND BE VEGAN: EVERYDAY VEGAN RECIPES WORTH CELEBRATING

DREENA BURTON

- Third cookbook from bestselling author Dreena Burton. (Over 40,000 books sold)
- Focuses on preparing food for celebrations, whether they are intimate dinner parties for two, children's birthday gatherings, or a full-on cocktail galas
- Includes 16 full-colour photographs and 150 recipes

In Dreena Burton's first two bestselling vegan cookbooks, The Everyday Vegan and Vive le Vegan!, she offered a dazzling array of healthy, animal-free recipes, many of which are based on her experience as a mother of two young girls she and her husband are raising as vegans. In this, her third cookbook, Dreena turns her attention to celebratory food—imaginative, colourful, and delectable vegan fare perfect for all kinds of events, from romantic meals to dinner parties to casual potlucks.

VEGAN A GO-GO! A COOKBOOK AND SURVIVAL MANUAL FOR VEGANS ON THE ROAD

SARAH KRAMER

- Portable, easy recipes for travelling vegans
- Small, so users can tuck it into a pocket, purse, or suitcase with ease
- Reinforced cover, to make it more durable

Sarah Kramer is a vegan superstar, and she was named "The World's Coolest Vegan" by Herbivore magazine. Vegan à Go-Go! represents a change of pace for Sarah: a cookbook and more for vegan travellers, many of whom are daunted by the idea of going on the road and being able to locate and/or prepare the kind of nutritious animal-free meals they enjoy at home. The book covers information on how to deconstruct a restaurant menu to what food items are best suited to carry around in your luggage or handbag. There's even a section on "How to Say 'I Am Vegan'" in numerous languages.

COMFORT FOOD FOR BREAKUPS: THE MEMOIR OF A HUNGRY GIRL

MARUSYA BOCIURKIW

- Winner, ForeWord Magazine Book of the Year Award (GOLD), Autobiography/Memoir
- Finalist, Lambda Literary Award, Women's Memoir/Biography
- Shortlisted for the Kobzar Literary Award
- One of Quill & Quire's Books of the Year

Traversing decades and continents, Comfort Food for Breakups is an elegiac, sensual, and beguiling memoir about food, family, and personal history by fiction writer and filmmaker Marusya Bociurkiw. In these intimate vignettes, food—soup, eggs, chocolate truffle cake, perogies—nourishes, comforts, and heals the wounds of the past. Knishes recall a father haunted by memories of time spent in a concentration camp during World War II; chocolate evokes memories of queer girls and liaisons in dim lesbian bars. This thoughtful and moving book muses upon the ways in which food intersects with a nexus of hungers: for intimacy, for sex, for home.

FAME US: THE CULTURE OF CELEBRITY

BRIAN HOWELL

- A fun yet incisive look at the culture of celebrity in the modern age of gossip blogs, supermarket tabloids, and brazen paparazzi

Why do we care so desperately about famous people? In this stunning book, photographs of celebrity impersonators are juxtaposed with narratives and quotations dealing with our cultural obsession with fame, in an era in which tabloids and gossip blogs reign supreme, and personalities like Paris, Lindsay, and Jessica are superstars because of—not in spite of—their personal lives.

LITTLE SISTER'S CLASSICS

THE CARNIVOROUS LAMB

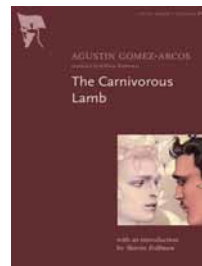

AGUSTIN GOMEZ-ARCOS

- The Carnivorous Lamb, originally written in French, won the Prix Hermes, and this, its 1984 English translation, was widely acclaimed

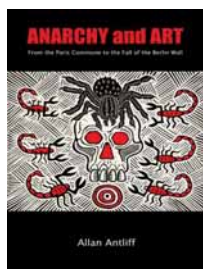

Haunting ... unusual Eerie yet amusing ... Gomez-Arcos neatly satirizes Franco's Spain and the Roman Catholic Church and gets in a few pokes at America as well ... refreshingly distinctive and engaging.
—New York Times Book Review

The latest in the Little Sister's Classics series resurrecting gay and lesbian literary gems: a viciously funny, shocking, yet ultimately moving 1975 novel, an allegory of Franco's Spain, about a young gay man coming of age in a troubled family: with a mother who despises him, a father who ignores him, and a brother who loves him.

THE VIEW FROM HERE: CONVERSATIONS WITH GAY AND LESBIAN FILMMAKERS

MATTHEW HAYS

The history of gay and lesbian cinema is a storied one, and one that became much larger with the recent success of Brokeback Mountain, Capote, and Transamerica. But the history of gay and lesbian filmmakers is its own story. In The View from Here, queer directors and screenwriters—some mainstream, others who work defiantly from the margins—speak passionately about the medium, in particular their personal experiences navigating through the often-cynical and cruel film industry.

COMIN' AT YA!: THE HOMOEROTIC 3-D PHOTOGRAPHS OF DENNY DENFIELD

DAVID L. CHAPMAN, THOMAS WAUGH

- Includes 3-D glasses, appended to back of book in plastic case
- The essay by Thomas Waugh, focuses on the history of stereo (i.e. 3-D) photography and its covert applications in the arena of erotic art
- Spiral-bound to allow flat-surface viewing

An amazing collection of full-colour, sexually explicit 3-D photographs of men taken in the early 1950s by Denny Denfield, an amateur physique photographer in California who worked as an accountant for the US Army. Denfield's photographs, never distributed publicly given their illegality at the time, display a skill, wit, and daring rarely seen, and with their rich Kodachrome colours and mid-century decors, can now be appreciated for their rogueish, almost naïve charm.

THE AGE OF CITIES
BRETT JOSEF GRUBISIC

A manuscript is discovered inside a hollowed-out home economics textbook from the 1950s: the story of a male librarian from a small town who comes to the big city at the height of the Cold War in 1959. At first he is giddy with the discovery of an urban paradise, allowing him to reinvent himself at the same time as the city is. But his accidental discovery of a gay subculture – culminating in a feverish, dream-like initiation – pushes him irrevocably towards crisis.
